Welcome to envision 2021
Dear friends

Welcome to ENVISION 2021, our annual pastors and leaders conference. This year more than ever demands men and women of faith who “know their God” (Daniel 11:27) and who are like the sons of Issachar, having “understanding of the times” we live in – and not only that but also “to know what [we] ought to do” (1 Chronicles 12:32). Indeed, leadership is required more in the Body of Christ today than ever.

We all find ourselves in the same place as Joshua, as we “have not passed this way before” (Joshua 3:4). Churches, ministries, businesses and even government officials are engaging new territory where we cannot necessarily draw from past experiences.

But in the midst of this new season of uncertainty, God promises to guide us through His Spirit and to make our feet “like hinds’ feet” (Habukkuk 3:19), enabling us to navigate the complex new realities and the places we have never walked before.

I pray that this year’s ENVISION conference will strengthen and envision you, and equip you to lead others in times of crisis.

Yours in Christ Jesus,

Jürgen Bühler
ICEJ President
